Plastic Kidney Tray

Categories: Medical Equipment, Plastic Hospital Holloware

Description

We manufacture and supply plastic kidney trays that are practical, hygienic, and made to last. Designed with a curved, kidney shape that fits comfortably against the body, our trays are perfect for collecting medical waste, dressings, or holding instruments during procedures. Made from strong, medical-grade plastic, they're lightweight, easy to clean, and built for repeated use. Whether in hospitals, clinics, or dental practices, these trays are simple to handle and help maintain a clean working environment. As a reliable manufacturer and supplier, we focus on quality, durability, and safety—so you can trust our trays to support daily medical care with ease.
